Question No. 21.—(How far have you read ?.) Enter the highest examinations passed, e.g., B.A., School Final, Matric, VII Standard, etc. Where the person enumerated has not attended any school or college, indicate the class or standard of education attained.

Question No. 22.—(Literacy in English). In the case of persons who can both read and write in English put a V otherwise put a X.

Question No. 23.—(Are you vaccinated ? or had small-pox). In the case of persons who are vaccinated and had small-pox put a V, otherwise put a X.

B. General Procedure.

The object of the Census is "to catch every man." Keep that in view as our prime objective. But remember too that we want to catch him only once; you must be careful in the case of visitors, absentees, etc., that there is no chance of their being numbered in more than one place.

Beginning from 1st February 1941 you will visit every house in your block, and enter the details for each question regarding every person according to the detailed instructions furnished above.

You will not have a schedule to write on this time. Get into the habit of studying your little book of instructions and the list of questions. You must not remove any slip from your enumeration pad. Practise the questions as much as you can. You can write down the answers on the back of an envelope or on any old piece of paper or on a slate in the course of such practice.

Consult your supervisor in any case of difficulty but remember that in the last resort it is on you as a citizen of the country that India relies for the information she secures through the census.

As soon as you have completed a pad, note down the number of males and females and literates in that pad and hand the pad to your supervisor. After you have completed your enumeration, total up your figures, fill in the columns in the enumerator's abstract and hand it over to your supervisor.

Under the Census Act, every person is legally bound to furnish you with the information you need for recording your answers. You, however, must not ask information on any matters not necessary for the purpose of the census, for example, the amount of any person's income. Nor must you disclose to any unauthorised person any information given to you or the results of the enumeration of your block. All census entries are confidential and cannot be admitted as evidence in any civil proceeding whatsoever or in any criminal proceeding other than a prosecution for a census offence.

Any enumerator extracting money on any pretext connected with the census will make himself liable to punishment under the Census Act or the Penal Code.

PART III—Section 1—Notifications by Government—Chief Secretariat

THE PALACE,
MYSORE,
8th September 1940.

MY BELOVED PEOPLE,

I have been profoundly moved by the innumerable marks of respect and affection for my revered uncle, the LATE MAHARAJA SRI KRISHNARAJA WADIYAR BAHADUR, which have poured in from rich and poor, from high and low, from every quarter of the State. Such testimony to the loss which they as well as I have sustained has brought much consolation to me and to the members of my House, and will be a source of strength to sustain me in the great task upon which I am about to enter.

In succeeding to the Throne of Mysore I follow a great Ruler who loved you all, and who won your love by his love of God, his wisdom, his graciousness, his humility, his faithfulness to duty and his kingly greatness.

His memory will be ever with us. It is a bitter memory now when we are feeling the full shock of his loss, the gap he leaves in all our lives. It will grow sweeter as the years go on and as we learn to appreciate the more all that he meant to us, and to mould our lives by his.

It is now for us to dedicate ourselves to the fulfilment of his great task. And we shall succeed in fulfilling it if we so consecrate ourselves in the spirit of one great family. The world is very full of troubles to-day and it is only by meeting these troubles in a spirit of unity and self-sacrifice that we can win through. In this spirit I look upon this ceremony of ascending the Throne of my ancestors as a dedication of myself, my life and all I have to the service of the people of Mysore. But I am fully conscious that no effort of mine can succeed alone. I need your help and your co-operation, your confidence and your love.

May God grant me light and strength in the discharge of the sacred duty entrusted to me, and may His blessings in abundance rest on and brighten every hearth and home in Mysore.

Jaya Chamaraja Wadiyar

PRESS NOTE.

ENEMY PROPERTY IN INDIA.

Holders to furnish returns by October 31st.

As a result of the entry of Italy into the war, all property in India, moveable and immoveable, belonging to Italian subjects and Italian firms abroad is enemy property and has vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property. Banks and such of the public as have in their custody any property belonging to persons of Italian nationality abroad are required to submit before the 31st October 1940 full particulars relating to such property in the prescribed forms, which can be obtained from the Custodian of Enemy Property, Contractor Building, Ballard Estate, Bombay, the Deputy Custodian of Enemy Property, 22, Central Avenue, Calcutta, or the Inspector of Enemy Firms and Assistant Custodian of Enemy Property, Madras, Imperial Bank Building, First Line Beach, Madras, on application (with the necessary postage, if not applied for personally).

These forms have been prescribed in the Enemy Property (Custody and Registration) Order, 1939, issued by the Government of India under rule 114 of the Defence of India Rules, and the returns to be submitted in these forms are, therefore, statutory returns which the public are under an obligation to furnish.

2. The property in India of all persons resident in or bodies of persons incorporated in countries which are for the time being in enemy occupation is also enemy property and such property has vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property. Proceeds of bills drawn by such persons or bodies of persons in countries now in the occupation of the enemy should not, therefore, be remitted direct to those countries. They have to be paid into the Personal Ledger Account of the Custodian of Enemy Property with the Reserve Bank of India, Bombay, unless in any case a special order has been issued that such payment is unnecessary.

Returns in respect of all property belonging to persons resident in or firms incorporated in enemy-occupied territory, i.e., Denmark, Belgium, Holland and Norway, should also be submitted to the Custodian of Enemy Property, unless otherwise ordered by him.

All French territory in Europe (including Corsica), Algeria, the French zone of Morocco, and Tunisia are also to be regarded as enemy territory for this purpose. In the case of territory now under enemy occupation, such returns are to be filed by the 31st October 1940, as the period of two months after the date on which the property in question vested in the Custodian of Enemy Property—which is the prescribed period during which such returns should ordinarily be filed—has already expired.

3. Persons who entertain doubts regarding the payment of any money due by them to parties in enemy countries (Germany and Italy) and enemy-occupied countries (such as Holland, Belgium and Denmark) are advised to get into touch with the office of the Custodian of Enemy Property or with any of the Scheduled Banks, who have been advised of the procedure to be followed in regard to such payments.

C. N. SHARPLES,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

No. P. 40—40-41, dated 22*nd October* 1940.

With reference to the Press Communique dated 26th July 1940 regarding the supply of Binoculars, Compasses and Revolvers for the Defence Services, issued as per the Note by the Department of Supply, Government of India, the public are hereby informed that a person residing in an Indian State, desirous of presenting or selling his revolver to the Government of India, will have to obtain licence for the transfer of his arms to the Ferozepore Arsenal. It has been represented that the trouble entailed in this procedure may deter potential donors or sellers.

Under the provisions of Section 1 (b) of the Arms Act, no licence is, however, required by Political Officers for sending such arms to Ferozepore. It is, therefore, suggested that donors or sellers may send their arms to the Residency (addressed to the Secretary to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore), for transmission to the Ferozepore Arsenal.

There will then be a check of the Preliminary Record by the Amildar or other officer specially authorised by the Superintendent of Land Records, Survey and Settlement or by the Deputy Commissioner in this behalf. Occupants and persons interested in the land are required to furnish every information that may be within their knowledge to the Investigating Officers in order to ensure accuracy in the preparation of this Record which will form the basis of the future Record of Rights.

4. All persons interested in land are required to render every reasonable assistance to the officers of the Department of Land Records when they come to a village to measure the hisssas and to conduct enquiries in case of disputed boundary lines between hissas in the field, after giving the prescribed notice.

5. The attention of the public is invited to the provisions of Section 7 of the Record of Rights Act, requiring them on requisition by a Revenue Officer engaged in compiling or revising the Record of Rights, to furnish or produce information and documents needed for the correct compilation or revision thereof within one month from the date of such requisition. Failure to comply with this requisition and secure registration of their rights will render occupants and holders of interest in land liable to a fine not exceeding rupees five (recoverable as an arrear of land revenue), besides depriving them of the several advantages enumerated above. The officer to whom any information is furnished or before whom any document is produced in accordance with the requisition will give a written acknowledgment therefor in the form prescribed, to the person furnishing or producing the same and shall endorse on any such document, before returning it to him, a note under his signature stating the fact of its production and the date thereof.
